JUNE 1937

PREFACE

THIS BOOK IS OUR BOOK. It is a pictorial resumé of an eventful year in the lives of all of us. And we hope to give our readers a glimpse of what we study, of what we think, and of what we play in the course of twelve months' time by this publication: the Aitchpe '37.

CONSTRUCTION is our theme; not only the construction of an Annex: one of wood and stone and steel, but our construction: one of flesh and spirit. We are growing; we constantly need larger shoes and longer clothes, and some of us larger desks. We are also growing mentally; we learn to work "trig" problems; we learn something of anatomy; we write grammar, and we study languages. And we are growing spiritually; we have learned to play the game; we have learned courtesy and decency, and we hope that we have been imbued with the idea of teamwork. Our childish thoughts have been replaced by dreams of ambition and by actualities of intellectual growth.

Our art department is a most definite example of this growth, because, for the first time (we think) in a school annual, the silk screen process, a really difficult one for inexperienced artists, has been used.

Now that we have reached a certain point, have we stopped growing? Far from it! Our judgment and common sense are increasing and our limitations are lessening. This is our declaration of construction—to learn, to build and to know. We have made it and we shall stick by it.

DEDICATION

For their unstinted support and willing cooperation;

For their maintenance of scholarships and fostering of student health aids;

For their sincere efforts that have made a hope of years, the annex, become a reality;

We, the Aitchpe Staff, with hearth-felt gratitude, dedicate this CONSTRUCTION edition to our

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

FACULTY

Students of Hyde Park:
Greetings:
Please accept my best wishes for a glorious success in all your undertakings. Sincerely,

Joseph F. Gonnelly

A. W. Smalley

I. N. Van Hise

WE ARE MODERN. We are proud to be modern so that today there is no longer that age-old gap between teacher and student. A bridge has been spanned and that span is a spirit of friendship and closer relationship. But the pity of the situation lies in the failure of too many pupils to see that whether it be a bad case of algebra or a case of misunderstanding, their teachers stand as wise and sympathetic friends.

But as well as being companions, they are learned instructors in wide and varied fields: the sciences, both physical and biological; the household arts; drawing, both freehand and architectural; four of the foreign languages; the commercial studies; every kind of gym; the histories; and English. Moreover, today all students, save freshmen, are free to choose what and when and whom he wishes for his scholastic pursuits.

Chief executive at Hyde Park is Mr. Joseph Gonnelly, a scholar and thinker whose theories and practices in education have won him the life-long admiration of teachers and the honest respect of the student body. Right hand man to Mr. Gonnelly is Mr. Archibald W. Smalley, another real person, firm but understanding. Number one man at Branch is Mr. Ira N. Van Hise; kindly, brilliant, and more than likeable.

With the coming term a new worry will be added to the already numerous ones of our teachers: a new system is to be installed that will involve a lot of probably trying adjustment. The system is one that gives the students three majors instead of four, with art and music as solids. Also, the three majors will follow each other in sequence from the first year to the last. This system is surely an experiment and may cause a better understanding between teachers and their protegees.

FEBRUARY

SENIORS

FEBRUARY GRADUATES

We, the February class, have been uncomfortably aware of the fact that February classes have always introduced themselves by a boring and wholly unnatural discourse on "Our Days at Hyde Park." That this was hackneyed has finally dawned upon us. Stiffness and formality belong to the past. But we are going to be ourselves.

We have, it is true, learned a good bit—a bit with which so many love to accredit us! How to be ladies and gentlemen, how to know the full value of Latin and of algebra, how to pay attention, and above all, how to mould ourselves into such promising men and women from such little boys and girls.

But we have also learned a good many other and perhaps more valuable lessons: Study counts, but not too much—and for those of us who haven't learned that, we've lost our only chance; getting an "E" in physics can realize just as much glory as winning a game of basketball. There's quite an art to playing this game of life, and it calls for wit and tact and common-sense that isn't found in textbooks. Being fair and square and above board with your fellowman is far more important than being unscrupulous and striving only for an honor average. "Beware when all men shall speak well of you."

For we are youth of a nation—a nation which will soon open another chapter to us. Some of us will take one road, others will choose one of the many alternatives. But through the years the thought will ever pursue us that four of our happiest years of work and play have meant an eternal companionship and reality to us.

So now, as we look back, we see that these days have given us all the chance to show if we could "take it." We have received just what we have put in. For those of us who have opened our eyes and used our heads, the days are gay with happy memories. The time is nearing when we shall leave, and that we do, with laughter and youth in our hearts.

* (Election of class officers has been postponed until fall.)

Coach Schultz

The objective of the COACHES of our athletic department is not merely to win championships. They realize that the development of winning teams is relatively unimportant; they endeavor rather to give each student in the school a desire for his physical betterment, a genuine enjoyment of athletics, a true sense of sportsmanship. The generally admitted success of the instructors in obtaining this end is explained pictorially here by the individual "snaps." These candid shots really show the lively interest which each coach has for his work.

Uncle Eddie!

Yea, Team!

The duties consequential to athletic activities are too numerous to be performed by the instructors and coaches. Therefore, a few boys, the MANAGERS, take charge of interclass games, care for school equipment, and do everything they can to enable the instructors to devote their efforts entirely to teaching.

This year that dean of CHEERLEADERS, Eddie Silver, conceived the idea of girl cheer leaders, a novel idea in the history of Hyde Park. Making its debut at the Englewood game, mid-season, the team received the approval of all.

Because of lack of weight and experience, the FOOTBALL team has had the leanest season of several years. The average weight of the squad was about 150 pounds. This made Hyde Park's warriors the lightest team in the entire city league. With only two returning lettermen, Bob Seltzer and Dave Wiedemann, almost the entire squad had to be formed from new men.

At the 124th Field Artillery Armory, before a crowd of 10,000 people, Hyde Park opened its football season against a spectacular team from Tilden Tech. Although the Blue and White played its best, it was apparent from the beginning of the game that Hyde Park was in for a beating. The heavy line of Tilden stopped us so efficiently that we were able to make only two first downs, both of which occurred during the final minutes of play.

In the following week, Hyde Park met a highly-rated Hirsch eleven at White City. Here, Hyde Park played what was, perhaps, the best game of its season. The line held so that the Hirsch backfield men could not pass our 25 yard line. Credit should be given to Bob Seltzer and Bill Welch, Hyde Park backs, for their splendid showing. Although we outplayed the Hirschites during the entire game, the final score was 0-0.

On a rain-soaked field of White City a week later, Hyde Park played Du Sable.

Once more the line showed its mettle when again and again it repulsed the Red and Black attack. Late in the second quarter, however, after repeated poundings Du Sable was able to put over its one winning touchdown. The kick after the touchdown was good, making the final score 7-0. Floyd Cummings and Herb Bessinger, Hyde Park's right and left tackles respectively, stood out because of their ability in recovering Du Sable's frequent fumbles.

Hyde Park was given its worst defeat of the year by Harrison. In this game both the line and the backfield appeared extremely weak. The Blue and White reserves seemed to play better than the regulars. The final score was 40-0.

The next game was with Englewood, Hyde Park's traditional rivals. It didn't turn out to be Hyde Park's year to "razz" Englewood. Through the endeavors of its flashy back-field man, Andy Nesbit, Englewood was able to white-wash the Stony Islanders with a score of 20-0.

Hyde Park's warriors met Kelly on a very muddy St. Rita field. This game was to decide which team was to hold the cellar of the Central Section. The playing ability of the two teams was about the same, and it turned out to be quite an exciting game. At one time, with the ball on Kelly's five yard line it looked as if the Blue and White was going to score its first touchdown of the season, but because of three consecutive off-side penalties, the team moved backward instead of forward. The game ended in a 0-0 deadlock.

Lindblom was the last opponent on the schedule. Although it was disheartened by losing its chance to gain the Section title on the previous week, Lindblom slaughtered them 38-0.

Looked at from any angle, positive or negative, this year's gridiron season could hardly be called successful. Despite this, with the material he has developed, Coach Hasan has visions of next year's city championship.

Dave Wiedemann was voted an "all-section" end by the coaches. He was also mentioned in the "all-city" selections.

The following men received major letters: Herb Barnett, Chuck Birtman, Herb Bessinger, Louis Cherotes, Jim Corbett, Floyd Cummings, Sol Ellman, George

Gent, Al Honoroff, Volney Morin, Ralph McKirahan, Bill Neal, Bob Neidal, Mitchell Pope, Bob Seltzer, Paul Warme, Dave Wiedemann, Bill Welch and Nat Zivin.

Minor letters were awarded to Lawrence Bates, Bob Cummins, Ralph Dunbar, Harold Frye, Art Lesky and Herb Raffeld.

Those who received numerals are Angelo Caliendo, Bernard Chapman, Leonard Ensminger, Charles Macquad, Joe Pohlzon, Martin Rye and Leonard Waxler.

There are those persons who laugh and scoff at this football season; there are others who attempt to make a moral out of it, to the effect of "It's better to have played and lost than never to have played at all," or "If at first you don't succeed, try and try and try!"

Boiled down, the truth is this: Coach Hasan had practically all raw material to cope with, and after building it up to the best of his ability, he watched them fight their hardest, felt both gratified and unsatisfied: gratified that they made as splendid a showing as they did—unsatisfied, but determining that better seasons would follow, if only just to spite this season's failure.

Our SENIOR BASKETBALL team this year was certainly not a mediocre quintet. With five lettermen, Chuck Wetzel, Dan Stevens, Edgar Drucker, Tom King, and Bob McNamee, returning from last year's squad, we held high hopes of winning the city championship. Our expectations seemed justified when we won three straight practice games. Amundsen fell 20-13; Harvard was overwhelmed 45-12; and a scrappy Lindblom outfit was trounced 33-16.

During the Christmas holidays we entered the Stagg Tournament. Our boys entered the tourney as a favorite and their mettle was shown in the first stage when they whipped Wendell Phillips 37-6. The next game was a less one-sided affair in which we took Harrison Tech 31-27. Entering the quarter finals we encountered Farragut, ultimate third place winners, and lost in ragged fashion 27-15. Stevens and Wetzel scored high in the three games, averaging 14 and 8 points respectively. Our zone defense was undoubtedly the high-light of our tournament playing.

Stevens sits down

Meeting Calumet, the winners of the Stagg Tourney, in our first league game, proved disastrous as we lost in a "nip and tuck" battle 36-31. Drucker, flashy guard, came through with timely baskets and a good defensive game. Wetzel contributed 15 points to lead as high scorer.

Six feet nine

Our boys next met Fenger and romped home the decisive winners with a score of 36-24. Scoring honors were divided evenly between Drucker, McNamee, Stevens and Wetzel who each contributed seven or eight points. Meeting Hirsch, we ended with a heart-breaking loss to a weaker team. Although leading until the final minutes we succumbed to a three "bucket" rally: 17-15.

Our encounter with Morgan Park led to a second league victory: 27-12. Ranking with Stevens for scoring honors was Chuck Wetzel, who was playing his final game for Hyde Park. Without the services of this brilliant and versatile forward, but with a new line-up including: Stolkin, Garmisa and Nelson, we successfully drubbed Englewood 25-24 in a thrilling over-period game. Harper's titular possibilities were nipped in the bud when a spirited, team-working H.P. quintet handed them a 30-24 defeat. Here, as always, McNamee stood out with splendid work under the basket. The Blue and White then made it four wins and three losses by defeating Bowen 19-13. The season's final game with Parker was a 19-13 loss for the "Heavies." Letter awards were given to "Chuck" Wetzel, "Bob" McNamee, "Ed" Drucker, George Stevens, "Wally" Stolkin and "Ed" Falkenberg. All extended thanks to Mr. Schultz for putting out a winning team.

Fighting! Versatile! Team Workers! These words most nearly describe our JUNIOR CAGERS, winners of the section title.

Aitchpe strength was seen in four consecutive victories, for Sullivan, Harvard, Amundsen, and Lindblom all fell victims to H.P.'s invulnerable defense. Scoring and floor-honors were equally distributed with More, Darr, and Sotos as point men, and Block, Ross and Nathanson turning in fine defensive efforts.

These wins prophesied a successful season easily as an upturn in game attendance was apparent. Fans always ride a winner!

During the Xmas season, Mooseheart was taken and Schurz routed.

The Juniors met their first seasonal league competition and proved themselves superior by defeating Calumet in a fast moving game. More, shifty H.P. forward, lead scorers with 8 points, with Sotos and Darr trailing immediately behind.

Yo! Yo! More!

Earlier success was dampened only by a loss to the powerful and accurate shooting Fenger team. More led H.P. scorers with 12 points.

An undaunted quintet went ahead, however, to whip Hirsch and to overwhelm Morgan Park, as More, Darr, and Sotos contacted consistently.

Sotos takes the jump

The "Lights" proved their worth when Tilden fell, in a midseason practice game. Nathanson's timely buckets were appreciated as relief to game tension.

Progress to a place in top division was made when the scrappy quintet handed Englewood, a traditional rival, a setback in a heated conflict. Shaver, sharp shooting newcomer, stood out with a total score of 14 points.

It was an undisputed sectional lead that the spirited Juniors took as Harper succumbed under the stellar activities of Shaver, Darr, More, and Sotos—consistent season scorers.

Then Bowen High was trampled and in the last league game the Juniors culminated a successful season by defeating the Parker Greens.

Winning the Section Title placed the boys in the brackets for city championship. So the Blue and White met Harrison on a neutral floor and vanquished them. Then with 300 loyal H.P. fans, the squad met Manley, West Section champs, and fell to the tune of uncanny accurate shooting to end all hope of a city title.

But the undaunted boys closed their victorious season by placing third in the past season Blue Island tourney. Thornton, Parker, and Kankakee all fell before the H.P. Indians, but Bloom was the victor in the final game. Bob More was chosen to the all-tourney team.

Letter awards were presented to More, Sotos, Darr, Block, Shaver, Bogie, Ross and Nathanson.

Coach Elliot Hasan is to be congratulated for his successful efforts in developing a championship team.

BASEBALL is certainly not lacking in its share of enthusiastic aspirants at Hyde Park as was early evidenced by a surprisingly large turnout of about fifty prospective players.

Hitherto the Blue and White have kept somewhat of a cellar position in City League baseball competition; a reversal of precedent was looked forward to at sight of promising talent among the newcomers.

Heading the list of returning veterans was Matrofsky, able first-sacker followed by Gold and Wolf, pitchers. Second baseman Bob Ettlinger and outfielders Bochman, Leve and Dan Stevens. Promising hopefuls were: Jim Corbett, South-paw hurler, Nuss, Levin, Raffeld, Delighter, Williams, Warme, Bloch, Bartley, hustling catcher, and Frank Snyder, proficient moundsman.

The first few days were spent in the "big gym" tossing the ball around and working out stiff muscles. With the advent of better weather, the squad took to the "open" and real work, to round out a team that would really "click" and win ball games. Under the mentorship of the capable and hard-working "Heinie" Schultz, a working unity was soon accomplished.

Early evidence of Aitchpe strength was seen |in the| winning of our consecutive pre-season games as they downed Hirsch 8-4, Harper 12-3, Parker 7-1 and dropped Bowen 12-6, with Snyder, Corbett, Bartley batteries supported by fine cooperation of the rest of the H. P. squad.

In the league opener, the Blue and White trompled a Phillips "nine" 16-7 in three innings, Du Sable fell 14-4 as Dan Stevens led a barrage of sixteen hits, Tilden and Englewood were both defeated, 6-5and 12-5, respectively. Arlington Heights fell 7-4, and St. John's Military Academy succumbed 16-9; Wolf and Levin sharing the pitching duties.

The first league session defeat for the Stony Island nine was met at the hands of a hard-hitting Lindblom outfit by a score of 9-5. Errors and weak hitting led to this unexpected setback.

The Blue and White SENIOR TRACK members, all of whom just graduated from the junior division, were unable to take the big leap with much success. Although they lost all their practice meets by small margins and did comparitively well, they failed to obtain a noteworthy record in the indoor city meet. Herman Neiman captured the high point honors of the team by winning fourth place in the broad jump with a leap of twenty and one-half feet. Dale Thomas' tie for fourth in the pole vault at nine feet and four inches, and Bob Vernon's tie with four other high jumpers for fourth place made up the point winners. The teams will have a better chance for the coming year because every one of the members will be returning and they will have the addition of all the juniors to their roster.

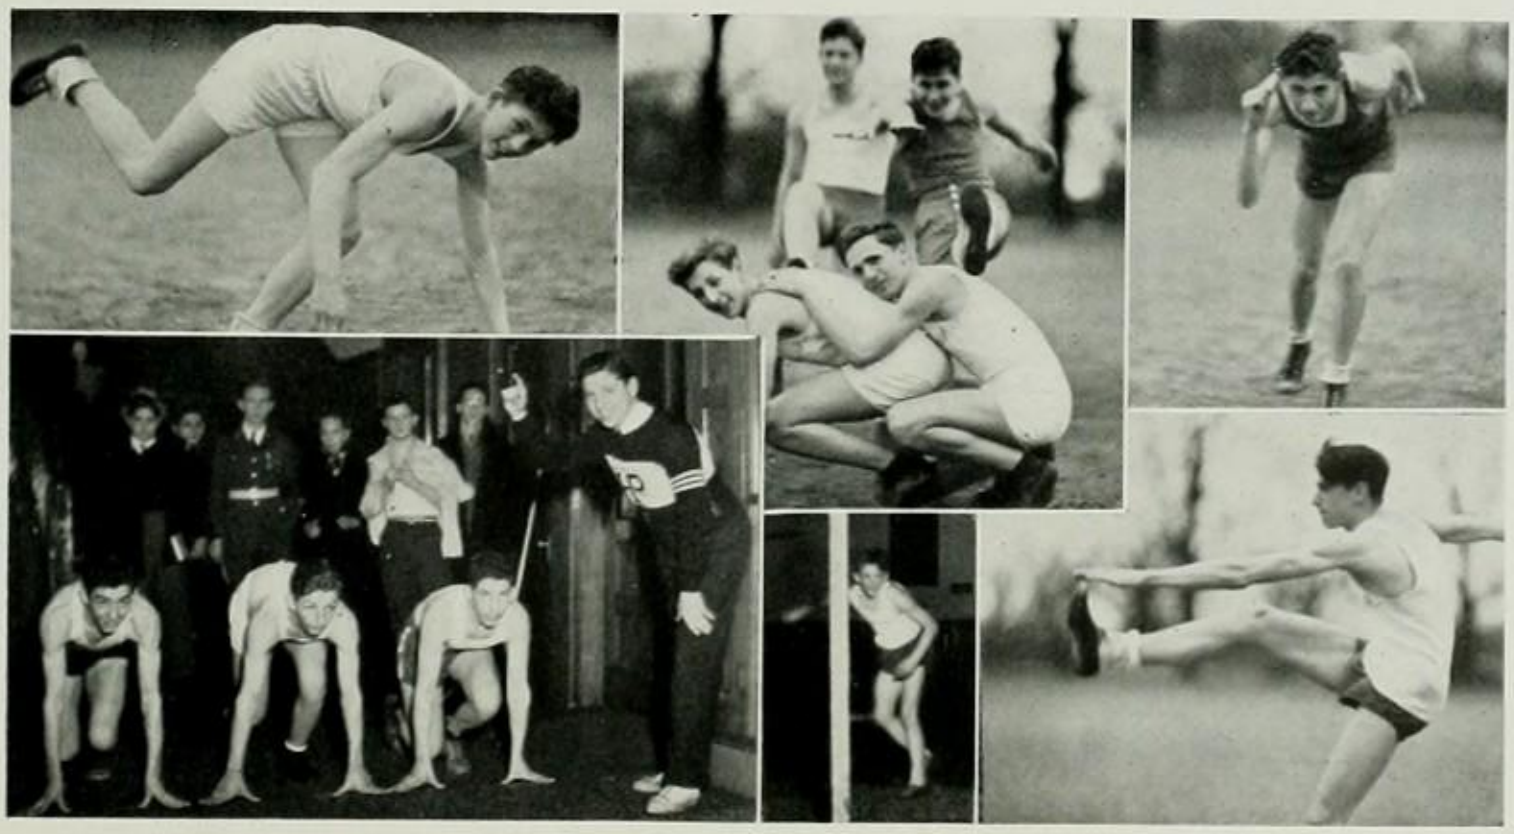
Our JUNIOR TRACKsters showed up surprisingly well in the indoor city meet in spite of their lack of experience. All the season's meets failed to bring out a remarkable performer. However, in the Hyde Park city meet, our "little" boys got third place with a total of thirteen points. Harold Frye led the attack by taking second place in the broad jump, leaping nineteen and a half feet, and taking fourth in the dash. He also gave a hand to our relay team, which finished third. Art Fradkin's capture of third place in the 660 and his running third in the relay team, Kent's third place in the high jump, Leopold's great running as anchor man, and Feld's sprinting as second man of the relay team were the causes of our good finish. With practice, these newcomers will undoubtedly develop and perhaps become champions.



Captain Overall

Gauss, Daniel; Overall, Bob; Beasely, Arthur; Baer, David.

Last year's FENCING team which consisted of the co-captains, Bob Overall and Ted Kritchevsky, and of Bob Butler and Danny Gauss, took second place in the Kraft Cup Meet. Every high school team in Cook County took part in this meet. Although this was not an individual contest, Hyde Park's Bob Overall was the highest scorer.

In the city meet the team was not so successful. Every man seemed to have a bad day of it and the team came in near the bottom.

Butler was lost by graduation and his placed was filled by David Baer. Otherwise this year's team is the same as that of last year. It will have practice matches with Lindblom and Lake View, and then will enter the city, state and Kraft Cup meets.

In spite of an antiquated swimming pool, numerous ineligibilities, and lack of money, Mr. West is able to show a fine record of this year's SWIMMING teams. There were eight meets in which both the seniors and the juniors participated. Of these, the seniors won six and lost two; the juniors lost three, won four and tied one. In a meet at the end of the semester in which all Chicago high schools were engaged, Fred Silverthorne won the city diving championship, Bob Maier took second in the backstroke race, Alden Boor placed third in the junior backstroke, and the junior team placed second in the relay. Volney Morin and Alden Boor were captains of the senior and junior teams respectively. When Morin graduated, Bob Maier was elected to that capacity. Other outstanding swimmers: Wittenberg, Clark, Calkins, Marks, and Bougher.

To make selection of the members of the TENNIS team as fair as possible, a tournament is held each year and the winners automatically become the players who represent the school. Last year John Crane, Charles Pohlzen, and Robert Dell were top men in the singles tournament, while Howard Goldman and Ted Kritchevsky won the doubles title. This team beat every school in the section but Tilden. Although Pohlzon and Dell were lost through graduation, the team, with Captain Crane and the ace duo, is probably the best in many years. New players who may challenge the supremacy of Crane are Bellson, Behr, Greenblatt and Lutes.

Hyde Park GOLF teams have always been feared by rival schools. Why? Mr. West! Our golf quintet has built for itself a reputation principally as the result of the coaching of this noted Mr. West. "George" practices what he preaches, for he is an experienced golfer, well remembered by Chicago golf fans for his admirable play in city championship matches.

The team this year has exceptionally fine prospects. It is composed of Capt. Don Pederson, Sheldon Colen, Morrie Boas, David Curtain and Jim Lane. It plays twice a week in practice for its approaching (as we go to press) matches with Fenger, Hirsch, Bowen and Austin.

Hands Across the Table!

The winning of championships appear to be a matter of course for Hyde Park CHESS teams. Thirteen have been won in the past fourteen years. At the time the book goes to press it seems that the team is on its way towards another win, for every match which has been played so far has been won. Sullivan and Austin have both been defeated by a score of 8-2, Tilden has been overcome 9-1, and Roosevelt has forfeited the match. Crane, Lane and Manley are yet to be played., but the 326-ers seem not to show the slightest signs of worry. Extremely enthusiastic about the game, they may be seen playing each night after school until the five o'clock bell (and occasionally the janitor) forces them to leave. Brilliant, Watt, Levinson, Kessler and Baer play first, second, third, fourth and fifth boards respectively.

Although the major part of the Hyde Park student body does not hear much of the girls' athletic MANAGERS, the athletes themselves respect and admire these girls who receive no great amount of either credit or glory. Their aid to the contestants in the various sports is invaluable. On the sidelines, boosting and cheering, these managers are always on hand to be of assistance when called upon by either coach or player. In spite of insufficient funds and inadequate equipment this year, these students have done noteworthy work. Due to the prompting of the managers, of the athletes themselves, and most notably of the G.A.A., it is hoped that these conditions will be brought to an end, thus enabling the managers to do more efficient work.

From whom, when and how do the Aitchpe girls get their letters?

The answer, like the question, is multiple: from the GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, via one thousand points and at the "Spread." G.A.A. is triple in purpose, also. To interest girls in sports, to form a social organization for those interested in athletics and to boost all school activities form its three-fold purpose. The thousand points necessary for the letters seem distant at first, but with the impetus of growing interest, momentum makes the awards seem closer. The general length of time for obtaining these white letters (as distinguished from the blue letter awards for the boys) is two years. The activities of this group are surely sensible, for the contents of the treasury were increased by such events as a Roller Skating Party and a Flower Sale at the Music Festival. Two parties are held each semester. At the beginning, a "Break the Ice" party is held to interest newcomers in the G.A.A. The "Spread" given at the last of the semester is the moment of triumph for many, for then are the letters and pins awarded.

In the spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of "———!" and BASEBALL. The "old vacant lot" and the park are settings for the games played by the feminine enthusiasts in our school. For the first few weeks our diamond enthusiasts "up" their "pitching arms" and perfect their "batting eyes" indoors. With the advent of warm weather, however, the Aitchpe "Gabby" Hartnetts and Luella Gerigs migrate to the good earth where the annual Round Robin Tournament gets under way. The games once started, excitement prevails until the end of school. As in previous years, a hard-fought Round Robin is expected, for from the first "Play Ball!" all eyes are glued hopefully upon the wearing of the white felt baseball with "'37" sewed on it, the emblem of a baseball winner. Because the spring baseball tournament starts so late in the season, the results of this year's tournament are not yet known.

FIELD HOCKEY is one of Hyde Park's favorite fall sports—a fact well marked by the vast number of girls who have turned out for the game. Those who already could play, came to have a good time; those who couldn't, to learn the game well. To determine the best team, a round robin tournament was held. The team of Nancy Davis played that of Edla Kleiz for the championship, but Nancy's came out on top after a very close scramble. Her players, fine players and clean sports, all of them, were Violette Billings, Barbara Heiburg, Sara Marshall, Barbara Monk, Lillia Rhuebell, Bernice Templer, and Marjorie Wilson.

In the line of honors, Nancy Davis and Marjorie Wilson were justly proud in making a place for themselves on the All-Chicago Hockey Team for girls. Also included in this rank was Betty Morrison, President of the G.A.A.

"Because of so many other activities, VOLLEY BALL seemed to lack the enthusiasm which usually accompanies it. Nevertheless, those who did participate in this sport found the volley ball tournament an enjoyable event"—so began the volley ball "write-up" in the Aitchpe '36. That statement might well serve as a summing-up of the 1937 season.

This year, with such events in girls' sports as the debut of the fencing squad and the reappearance of the rifle team, along with the continued success of the year-old ping pong and golf groups, volley ball was greatly over-shadowed.

This season, the girls again went through the standard formula: two eighth hour captains, two ninth hour captains, one tenth hour captain, these being leaders of the tournament teams. By process of athletic elimination, one team stands victorious, at the net and at the G.A.A. spread when emblems are given.

"Get That Ball!!"

Three questions arise:

1) Why is BASKETBALL so perenially popular?

2) Why do people invariably connect this game with boys' rather than girls' sports?

3) Why does the basketball season inevitably get off to a tardy start?

It stands to reason that such obvious (and embarrassing, in turn) questions need no answer.

The basketball season brings to mind two outstanding events: the free-throw tournament and the team tournament, six teams competing. Basketball would appear to be the top sport, for it seems to draw the school's outstanding athletes from all fields: swimming, ping pong, hockey, baseball—all are represented. At Hyde Park, then, the sport of the kings becomes the sport of the queens.

Since girls' GOLF classes were introduced at Hyde Park a year ago, the girls have taken up golf with great enthusiasm. They learn all the fundamentals of the sport and gain much experience in the semi-weekly practices in the gym, before warm weather permits games outdoors and on the Jackson Park courses.

PING PONG has become very popular at Hyde Park. A tournament is held each year to choose the upper and the lower class winners. These two winners in turn play for the school championship. There is a great deal of excitement among the spectators during this game while each person cheers for his favorite player.

These two sports, rapidly rising on the horizon of Hyde Park girls' athletics, are supervised by Miss Marston, from their preliminary planning to the swinging of the clubs and the paddles themselves.

SWIMMING always has been, is and always will be, from present appearances, the most consistent favorite of all the sports offered Hyde Park girls. The first step in getting ahead in this sport is the winning of a beginner's button. To earn this button, a girl must swim the length of the pool once.

To receive the next button, the swimmer's button, presents a more difficult problem. To obtain this award it is imperative the contestant swim five lengths of the pool, make a plain front dive, be able to float and to tread water.

Membership on the swimming team is open to any girl who can swim the length of the pool in thirteen seconds or less. The team is under the sensible and seasoned direction of Miss Butts.

Swimming holds a distinct advantage over many of the other sports in that it is not seasonal. For this reason, we find that such activities as the G.A.A. Mock Swimming Meet being held biennially: in torrid June and in frigid December. At these meets many unique events take place. Whether swimming is looked at as competition or just plain fun, it certainly "fills the bill."

Knowledge essential to every successful swimmer is presented Hyde Park's "aquaticians" in the LIFE SAVING AND DIVING classes.

Most every girl joins the life-saving class with the ambition of winning her Junior or Senior Red Cross Life Saving emblem. It is necessary to know how to apply artificial respiration as well as knowing the different holds, approaches and carries. The important carries are the head and the cross-chest carries, and the holds are the double grip on one wrist and the strangle holds.

The DIVING class meets two times a week under the coaching of the ubiquitous Miss Marston. Diving improves the posture and enables every girl to learn new dives such as the swan, jack-knife, hand-stand, half-wrist and the back and front flips.

The girls' RIFLE TEAM was re-organized this year after a two year absence from the roster of girls' athletics. These girls practice together one day a week in the R.O.T.C. room from eighth through eleventh period. Each girl must furnish her own rifle, ammunition and targets. Although these markswomen range in age and class ranking, they are certainly bound together by a strong mutual interest. Each girl practices untiringly in hope of becoming perhaps another Annie Oakley.

Hyde Parkers are particularly proud of Frances Farwell, who has won all the medals offered by the National Rifle Association.

Although FENCING was introduced to Hyde Park girls just this year, it has been taken up with much enthusiasm. The girls learn fencing from the fundamental positions to the lightning fast movements of a real encounter. Mr. Schmidhofer is their careful director, who encourages them to higher and mightier things in the field of fencing. Under his coaching, it is expected that some finished girl fencers will be turned out in the near future.

Spring ushers in many things. To little boys in the streets the primary thought is marbles. Girls think of hop scotch and skip rope. Our Aitchpe fellows turn their thoughts lightly to baseball, track and spring football. But what occupies the mind of our athletically-inclined young ladies

Answer: PROFICIENCY AND POSTURE.

For in springtime, with the G.A.A. spread and the letter awards not far away, proficiency and posture mean much. No girl working for her letters need hope for that honor unless she can pass these tests of athletic ability with at least a grade of "E." These tests, held in the regular gym classes, are taken by many, but the high degree of efficiency demanded of the contestants rather limits the number of winners.

The tests: Running, jumping, throwing and balance.

The demands: Head up, chin in, chest out, abdomen in, shoulders back and knees slightly bent.

The reward: Not only honor, but also the satisfaction of self-assurance.

In the 1935-36 season, a "first time" was held in the history of Hyde Park girls' athletics: a TENNIS doubles tournament.

In the 1936-37 season, due to the great success of the match a season previous, another doubles tournament was held. The winners of the matches in both seasons were the same: the quick-thinking, speedy team of Marian Hart and Pearl Rubins.

In the singles competition, last year's winners again showed their mettle. Frances Engleman and Marian Hart, winners of last year's upper and lower class championships respectively, repeated their success this season.

Miss Marston is in charge of the tennis classes, which meet every Friday, eighth, ninth and tenth periods. It is a far jump from the polished performances of those mentioned above to the crude, rough-cut attempts of the beginner. The reason is obvious: The serve, the forehand and backhand strokes, the rules of the game—all have yet to be mastered by these novices.

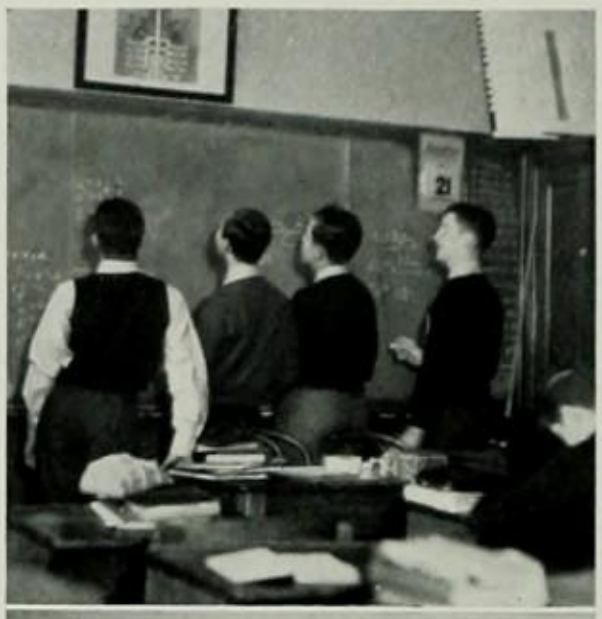
HONOR

SOCIETIES

For all third year pupils who have found themselves to be outstanding in mathematics (such a fact being proved by the average of "E" that they have maintained for two previous years), EUCLIDEAN SOCIETY has been established. The real purpose of the class is to provide a means of study in preparation for the university scholarship examinations. These pupils work out enticingly difficult problems in higher algebra and geometry, most of which are real brain-teasers that furnish the students with a stiff drill. Mrs. Hildur Lundquist is the force behind the throne of this royal clan (for royal it is in view of the brains it takes to belong) and her limitless knowledge of the subject makes her a firm and wise ruler.



A "TOUGH" PROBLEM

SLIDE RULE PRACTICE

Some of the members took a large part in the recent exhibit given for the National Council of Mathematic's Teachers. Pascal's Triangle, the Pythagorean Theorem, graphs in three semesters of algebra, and three dimension graphs were among some of the dark secrets of mathematics that were evolved by these brilliant and youthful mathematicians.

The CHEMISTRY HONOR CLASS, better known as "Chem Honor", is a most prominent feature of the science department. It has been in existence four years with the intention of acquainting more thoroughly with chemistry those who are trying for scholarships and those who wish to make chemistry their life work. As in all honor classes the entrance is possible only through high grades.

FUTURE "PRIESTLEYS"

The studies taken up in regular classes are here discussed in greater detail, as well as the points that are entirely omitted. Pupils often present to the class surveys and projects made through their own initiatives, and the information thus gleaned is plentiful. Exhibits and demonstrations are likewise given, providing the whole class with new material. "Chem Honor" is popular; the reasons are many. One is that at the head of the class is Mr. William McLain, an amiable scholar who likes his chemistry and makes you like it. He has done more converting than perhaps any other teacher. Another is that when presented as it is here, chemistry becomes interesting, fascinating. Thus chemistry has wormed its way into both the technical and scholastic minds of Hyde Park.

The Latin students of JUNIOR ARISTOI find (some of them as a surprise) that this "dead" language becomes alive and real. After all, when the philosophy, the history and the mythology of a nation are studied through the words of its orators and poets, Latin takes on a different aspect. It becomes easier to see Latin, to understand it, to connect it with English. That is the real purpose of Junior Aristoi. In the way of unusual enterprises, these students subscribe to a Latin newspaper, work cross-word puzzles, and practice sight translations. Outstanding, in view of the semester activity, is the initiation party that is given for new members. A novel affair, it takes all fear of Latin out of its prospective members. An honor class, the entrance requirement is high rank in Latin. These scholars are tutored by Miss Grace Bridge, a great pillar of the Latin department.

The aim of SENIOR ARISTOI is to furnish the advanced Latin students with a cultural background and a sound preparation for scholarship examinations. Miss Ella E. Mix makes a firm but tolerant magistra for this group which delves into syntax, translations, and mythical tales. But since Latin has a tendency to become tedious, parties and feats of wit are common occurrences. Scholarship is the aim, success is secured. Venerunt, viderunt, vicerunt!

The PYTHAGOREANS, senior mathematics honor society, was organized for the benefit of those students who wish to pursue mathematics further than is possible in regular classes and thus better prepare themselves for scholastic examinations and college. Miss Beulah Shoesmith, head of the mathematics department, again shows her ability as sponsor, efficiently directing Hyde Park's two highest honor groups: Pythagoreans and Sigma Epsilon.

Highest in scholastic attainment, the pride of studious Hyde Parkers, is SIGMA EPSILON, the largest of student organizations. Membership is limited only in that students must have an average of "E" in four majors and have no mark lower than "G" on their reports. Sigma is a goal of every student and there is none more proud than that graduate who has been a "four-year" honor pupil.

Miss Beulah Shoesmith, able head of the mathematics department, is an even more able head for Sigma. Her energy and ideas are limitless; her wise and just criticism is a means of help to everyone. It is through this organization that Miss Shoesmith finds a means of acquainting the student body with the importance and advantages of honor competition. Hyde Park is proud of its scholastic achievements and standing, and we know that it is largely through Sigma and its sponsor that we have been able to attain this record.

In the fall semester there were nearly four hundred students eligible for their Sigma pins, although only about three hundred took advantage of the situation. Pins are sported with pride by the members (who are bound to return them at the close of each semester). However, those pupils who are four-year Sigmas are presented with permanent pins upon their graduation.

Activities of Sigma Epsilon are varied, with meetings as the chief form of action. Perhaps the most auspicious is that in which the pins are distributed. This year, for the first time, a unique meeting was held in honor of the 1As. Mr. Gonnelly, Miss Shoesmith, and the officers of the organization welcomed the freshmen with all the enthusiasm that they deserved. It was truly a nice, chummy little party. The branch is also included in the Sigma roster and at several meetings the "branchites" are invited to the Main. Sigma is always striving to strengthen that bond between the two buildings by a solid unity of ideals. The faculty also takes a genuine interest in honor pupils and for that reason a program is given each term in order to keep them advised of the activities of the society.

The 4As are the chief beneficiaries of Sigma because through the club they are kept informed of scholarships and are advised in regards to the means of study and preparation best fitted them. Sigma has always encouraged good feeling and companionship, and its effect on the students and the morale of the school is evident in the student body as well as in the scholastic enterprises. To reach the entire school, the society gives an annual assembly, a popular affair. Here the pride of the alma-mater, scholarship winners, are presented to proud and delighted classmates. This year Hyde Park was first ranking in the University of Chicago examinations with four full and six half scholarships, and with three honorable mentions.

Sigma has a powerful effect upon the student body of Hyde Park. But nevertheless, it is sad to find that many pupils, always the less ambitious, often consider the organization as one for "namby-pambys" and boring intellectuals. So let us understand that those of Sigma are just as human and fun-loving as others—or more so. That while there are exceptions to every rule, the honor pupils, too, are real, truly American boys and girls—and often the "cream of the crop."

P. S.—On going to press we learn to our additional pride that the class president has won a Youth Week's scholarship!

Everything from the handling of reserved seats for the Senior Assembly to the selling of bus tickets takes place in the box office: the laboratory of the ACCOUNTING HONOR CLASS. But the selling of such student essentials is not all that goes on in that small, but well-patronized "cubby-hole," for expert accountants are they that sell these items. Under the precise guidance of Mr. John R. Byland, and the more immediate direction of Earl Heinrich, head of the box office force, this select group puts into practice the theories on which the organization is founded. The study in this honor class is primarily for students who plan to continue in accounting after leaving school. The requirements are high: the grade of "E" or better in Bookkeeping Four, after which course a student is prepared to carry second-year college accounting. The motto: Keep accounts and good ones.

To advanced students of third-year English, JUNIOR ENGLISH HONOR is a goal. The head of the department, Miss Elizabeth Buchanan, steers the class, who certainly thinks her a fine pilot. Under her tutelage the class studies literary works not discussed in the regular course, brushes up on its grammar, and eyes approaching scholarship examinations. In view of the ground covered, the class is worth the effort given by both pupils and teacher.

Because there are many pupils who are advanced in English, and because there is so much literature that is not part of the regular course, SENIOR ENGLISH HONOR offers extensive study and scholarship preparation. The success of the class is an established fact but some forget that this is largely due to Miss Rubetta Biggs, whose wit and wisdom have encouraged the class toward scholarship and intellectual growth.

Because the size of A Cappella is limited, the MIXED CHORUS has been established to receive the overflow. To become a member one must pass a voice as well as a music reading test. The tests are under the tutelage of Mrs. Josephine E. Lee, the director of the group. These musically inclined boys and girls meet one period a day, the credit being five-tenths each term.

The chorus, just celebrating its second birthday, has done some splendid work. The Parent-Teacher Association was justly proud of the youngsters when the latter sang for them several times during the year. And Mr. David Nyvall, a prominent figure in the music world, also praised the chorus for their extensive activities.

The students in the Mixed Chorus do not regard it as a class—they take it for fun as well as for credit, and their jolly spirit and enthusiasm is highly reflected in their musical achievements.

Breathing exercises, scales, and the soft lull of unified voices! Because of the time and limitless effort on the part of the GIRLS' CHORUS and their director, Miss Grace Guller, there has arisen a society which ranks as one of our foremost choral groups. Do's and mi's and nerve-wracking discords are all a part in the building of a solid foundation, which makes a good chorus. No one knows this quite so well as the girls themselves, but they have been rewarded with final exactness of pitch, tone quality, and vocal unity.

The Girls' Chorus has been exceptionally active in their participation of school programs during the current year. The Spring Music Festival was a gala affair wherein the girls displayed their talents as a group. They also took part in a city-wide competition at Marshall High School. Girls find the work of the club a good basis if they intend to make music a vocation.

"Do-do-do-mi-mi-mi-sol-sol-sol. Hold it! That's fine." And that is how A CAPELLA gets where it does. The students work hard; they have good voices (otherwise they wouldnt be there), and they can pick their pitch right out of the air. The last of these is a most powerful factor because, in view of the meaning of "A Capella," the members have to know how to get and keep the right tone.

The boys and girls who join the choral group are ambitious and progressive. They put their hearts into their work and sing with gusto and excellence all the songs which chance to meet the fancies and approval of the director, Mrs. Josephine Lee.

The latest addition, and pride of A Capella, is the new blue robes—robes which lend an air of dignity, and inspiration to sing in their best fashion.

The boys have monopoly on Miss Veronica Whelan when is comes to choral work. Miss Whelan is the little lady behind the pitch-pipe for the MALE CHORUS (known in past days as Boys' Glee Club). All a boy has to have to join is a willingness for hard work work and a fairly good voice. By the time a semester has gone by his voice as well as his willingness will be well on an uphill road. The boys learn not only how to sing well, and how to blend their voices in just the right manner, but also how to give some other fellow a showing and to put the load of doing a good job on his own shoulders. They put time and conscientiousness into their music, and their resulting ditties and arias show quality of pitch and tone as well as expression and feeling. Miss Whelan has had much experience and she certainly brings it to the fore with this chorus.

Fourth Row—Banks, Philip; Silverman, Robert; Goodman, Joseph; Geraci, Louis; Levit, Norman; Oliver, John; Adolph, Sydney; Pera, Warren; Pietch, Frances; Green, Nat; Ponder, Bernard; Leimer, Natalie; Schroeder, Wm.; Singer, Paul. Third Row—Rubin, Milton; Gerschberg, Mae; Geraci, Gerald; Pettigrew, Archie; Goldman, Wm.; Steingold, Harry; Russell, Mary; Blessing, Warren; Brolley, Wm.; Honoroff, Alvin; Runkel, Mabel; Jones, Jarvis; Phillips, Denzel. Second Row—Owler, Creighton; Ackin, Dorothy; Boll, Edward; Rush, Myron; Anderson, Myles; Pettigrew, Thomas; Giblichman, Herbert; Stanton, Lawrence; Gutt, Paul; Obolsky, Wallace; Alberti, Joseph. First Row—Dailey, Marian; Ranney, Muriel; Wexler, Ruth; Lambert, Miriam; Stoneham, Richard; Miss Katharin Finley; Smith, Glenel; Boone, Carey; Minium, Jane; Larson, Virginia; Magged, Beverly.

For boys and girls who find enjoyment in music, the HYDE PARK ORCHESTRA offers a welcome diversion. These future Spauldings and Tschaikowskis and Paderewskis and Frederick Stocks have as baton-wielder Miss Katharin Finley who does her wielding two periods every day. And if they are ambitious and take orchestra for four years, they receive a major credit for it. They show off the results of their training at assemblies and P.-T.A. meetings.

To "tread the boards" of the American stage is the ambition of every member of the BLUE MASK CLUB. As experience, to insure early preparation and foundation, these students take an active part in assemblies; they furnish amusement and clean fun for the benefit of various school activities. But acting is not the only part of Senior "Dram"—there are the mechanics of the drama to be explored and the absorbing work of stagecraft to be mastered.

The JUNIOR DRAMATICS class of fall and the SOCK AND BUSKIN club of the Spring are classes of students who substitute the study of the theatre for "English 6." In order that the title of the second unit may not be mistaken for that of a boxing club, its meaning will be explained: Soccus implies the comedy; Buskin, tragedy. The two combined make up the basis for all drama. The students construct tiny stages, thus teaching themselves something of the fundamentals of stage structures. In addition to this they learn something of the essentials of good acting, examples of which are pantomine and good diction. A vital participation in the witnessing of the drama and an intense interest in its construction and achievements are the greater part of these students' activity. "Junior Dram" is the joy of Mrs. Sara Priddy, while "Sock and Buskin" is the pride of Miss Edith Hardy.

They are spreading musical knowledge and appreciation—these members of the MUSICAL CLUB. The club is not only attractive to talented students who play instruments, but also to those who enjoy fine music.

At the meetings of the past semester the main theme of study included famous operas and their equally prominent composers. Many concerts were attended or presented, and the annual assembly was an aid in spreading musical culture.

The Old People's Home was also the scene of a series of appreciated programs. The pride of Musical Club is their alumni—in many instances recognized professional musicians. With foundation training in their first years, these pupils acquire the fundamentals for outside work—and prove themselves a credit to the club.

Talent runs high in the organization, as well as interest. Thereby there are numerous social meetings wherein the members or the alumni furnish the entertainment. Miss Josephine C. Lee is the sponsor and musical director.

The newly-formed CREATIVE WRITING CLASS, with Mr. Robert Darling directing, studies all types of literature: the news story, the book review, poetry, essay, drama, and the short story. The pupil writes in the field in which he is best fitted, thus enabling the class to reach the highest standard of production possible. The group is publishing, as an outlet for their own as well as non-members' talent, a magazine entitled HYDE PARK PENS.

Independence is important—to military-minded boys in particular. For the purpose of establishing this independence, the boys of the R.O.T.C. are partially under charge of the STAFF—select officers of their own companies.

"HEADQUARTERS, KNOCK BEFORE ENTERING!" is the emblem of the anti-room of the "higher-ups". Herein is the pride of Hyde Park's "soldier-boys"—not only the Staff, but their trophy cups of which there are five in recognition of the largest attendance of recruits to Camp Roosevelt, and a shield for third place in the city honor schools. But also in the anti-room the Staff eleven can rest their weary limbs in solid comfort (if they have a good imagination) and check on orders with Sergeant Brewer, to whom they are responsible.

The Staff is in charge of the line officers and there is an individual job for each member. There is one sergeant-major, a publicity officer to see that the "R.O." comes to the headlines, and there is a general supply officer. The work of the R.O.T.C. would prove too great for the hands of Sergeant Brewer alone, and so the most capable boys are chosen to shift some of the labor to their own shoulders.

First duty of new recruits is to learn that the "murals" of the general training room are not merely for decoration. Pictures tell of rifle nomenclature, of first aid, and positions (as of a soldier at attention). No one ever desires to remain a "non-com" but the road to the Staff is hard, and clean-minded boys learn how to execute squads rights through the direction of the Staff and of the company command officers.

For an unknown reason some people think that our "boys in uniform" are insignificant and totally unimportant, but this is hardly the case. The boys deserve a lot of credit for their time and work. Inter-company competition and Federal Inspection are high-lights of the yearly program—why not give them a more loyal support to help them maintain or exceed past records?

Third Row—1st Lt. Darr, Phil; Lt. Grant, William; Lt. Franck, R.; Capt. Lounges, Ernest; 2nd Lt. Work, Alvin; 1st Lt. Milburn, Walter; Lt. Clement, Edwin; 1st Lt. Fisher, Jack; 2nd Lt. Weil, Stewart. First Row—1st Lt. Jacoby, Bob; Capt. Lethenstrom, Eugene; Major Shulkin, Irving; Sgt. Will J. Brewer; Major Tygart, Robert; Capt. Herschman, Henry; Capt. Brown, Wilbur; Capt. Stephenson, W.

The COMMISSIONED OFFICERS are in charge of the four companies—they are line officers, responsible to the Staff. These leaders have worked to the top and to their "Sam Brown" belts. Now it is their turn to drill the lower ranking cadets in military defense, map reading, and marksmanship. Competition between companies plays an important part in regimental drill and it is natural that every platoon leader seeks to find his the victor.

The best shots in the sixth corps area are found in our own Hyde Park RIFLE TEAM. Right here in Hyde Park the marksmen are steadily, carefully aiming, firing—they hit the targets!—envisioning the time when they will again win the Hearst Trophy as they did this year. ZIP, and the bullet whizzes through the air to win a trophy. Marksmanship as exemplified by this team is emblematic of higher mathematical precision.

Third Row—Tully; Thomas, James; Capt. Lounges, Ernest; Capt. Lange, Frank; Lt. Mills; 1st Lt. Stamm, Russell; Staff Sgt. Bloom, Barnard; Bell, Donald. "TEN - - - SHUN!" Yes, everybody! For the Reserve Officers Training Corps is a unit of young men, worthy of your most earnest attention. This organization, a division of the United States Army, was instituted to give boys training that demands of them neatness, leadership and intelligence. The boys learn to wear shined shoes, starched shirts and suits with polished buttons. They also learn that warfare is truly an art and calls for more than just a finger on a trigger. They study map making, land surveying, topography as well as army manoeveurs and drill formations. In fact, mess excepted, they get a good taste of army life and discipline.

There are four companies in Hyde Park's "R.O." and each of them has outstanding features. For example, COMPANY "B" is the largest and one of the top ranking in drill work. On the other hand, COMPANY "D" is the smallest in the battalion and yet it cannot be beaten for knowledge of combat and skirmish movements. COMPANY "C" has become most proficient in military history and science and COMPANY "A" runs it a close second with basic military training thrown in for good measure.

All this tactic study and button shining and bull's eye hitting are steps to the crowning event: the Federal Inspection. Last year Hyde Park was justly delighted because it was, amid much ceremony, proclaimed an "honor" school. But that was really only a just reward for all boys' hard work and study. They did deserve the honor rating.

Sergeant William Brewer is the "boss" of the battalion and "believe you me," his orders are carried out to a "T," for the respect and liking that the boys have for him is limitless.

Hyde Park BAND practice—that volley of disturbance, the bane of studious Hyde Parkers! One group would not be enough and so it is deemed that there shall be three. The Beginners' and Junior bands, with their lively tunes and simple marches, trudge the long road to the final glory of the Senior band.

For it is only when the A B Cs of music are at their finger tips that their scores becomes more complicated and the advanced band is viewed at the peak of their success.

Crashing cymbals and rumbling drums have been for nearly two decades the standard of the spirit of our football games, of rallies, of assemblies. And while the swing of marches has thrilled us into rhythmic steps, they have found a recognition in city competition, under the master hand of Capt. Fagan. So boom on "mighty maestros"—wrack us at work, thrill us at our play.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT is a generator of the school machine, under the direction of Miss Ruth Stoke. There are five committees: Welfare, to help a poor soul blindly groping for a towel, or a foot-sore playboy at the "Fortnightly Flings"; Election, to convince the school that voting is the thing; Traffic, to care for the two and four-wheel steeds parked near the school; Poster, to publicize all activity; and Extra-curricular to manage club laws and offices.

As a part of Student Government, the CLEAN-UP COMMITTEE advocated a year-'round campaign, climaxing in the annual spring Clean-up Week. This week was more than a holiday because, through extensive publicity, the numerous sub-committees gained a school-wide interest in their work. With Miss Evelyn Phelan as sponsor, work was directed within twelve district grammar schools, and a gala assembly was the high light of the "Clean-up" and "Light-up" drive.

Service is the one word that stands as an embodiement of SENIOR SPONSORS. The club is made up of honor students in their fourth year who are appointed because of their high academic rating and general co-operation. The important paths of their service lie in the help they give to teachers (taking classes for example) and in the advice and aid they give to freshmen. Aside from these, they have many other accomplishments, among them, the information booth and guide for visitors. The Sponsors hope in the near future to make a club of their alumni, the purpose of which would be to send back to the school all the things which they would deem helpful and bettering to the present students. Miss Mae Kernan, the school psychologist, is counsellor to this select group, whose efforts are ever untiring and whose achievements are many.

Top Row—Rasmussen, Margaret; Monrad, Gertrude; Flesham, Audrey; Friedman, Warren; Tuttle, Jean; Hess, Doris. Second Row—Stiff, June; Sharpe, Irwin; Hines, Betty; McArthur, Margaret; Mitchell, Ruth; Glassner, Rosalind. First Row—Israel, Betty; Goldstein, Elaine, Rec. The BOOSTERS, sponsored by Mrs. Grace Edgar, are a group of representatives, two from each division room. These boys and girls are chosen for their brilliance in scholarship and for their outstanding records in honor societies and extra-curricular activities. The Boosters stand as "pepper-uppers" of all the games, plays, and the school activities. They have offered and granted service which should not be, in the futur, as in the past, unrewarded.

Hyde Park's library owes much of its success and pleasant atmosphere to the DEWEY LIBRARY CLUB, sponsored by Miss Alice Van Hattem and Miss Frances Curtin. One of the outstanding projects, an assembly given in December, depicting the "do's and don'ts" of the library, was so enthusiastically received that a return performance was requested. Proceeds from the annual Tag Day went toward buying a much needed supplement to the card catalog.

Top Row—Babel, Lucille; Paul, Clara; Malisoff, Rose; Smith, Margie; Harrison, Juana; Vicas, Helen; Postelnek, Marjorie; Moscrip, Mary; Third Row—Sevelow, Nettie; Lorris, Claris; Penoyer, Eva Mae; Leven, Janet; Isaacson, Yvonne; Nelson, Anne; Frederick, Geraldine. P.-T.A.! Those letters stand for a unit of parents and teachers whose aim is to create a strong understanding between Hyde Park and the homes of its pupils. Besides refurnishing the teachers' room and serving in the cafeteria, the mothers have carried on an extensive welfare program. This has included the providing of food, carfare and clothing to those boys and girls who would otherwise be unable to continue their high school education. The P.-T.A. has also obtained for the school a fine and helpful dental clinic. But orchids to them for the work they have done in securing an annex in which is to be a gymnasium, a swimming pool, library, and chemistry laboratories. They plan also to make the old library into a social room.

In addition to the usual speakers there have been several exhibits by different departments of the school, thus affording a variety of entertainment. The P.-T.A. have the largest membership in the city and this school is proud of and grateful for the many things they have done.

Staging is more than acting—as the STAGE FORCE, advised by Miss Hardy, may well affirm. There's furniture to drag and scenery to lift, curtains to draw and lights to control—for every stage success depends upon a co-ordinating stage crew. The care of the public address system is another stage duty—to keep it in working order, to move it to needed locations. The sole reward of the "stooges" is a portion of receipts—used to better equip the stage.

Just as Senior Boys hunt up brain power to make the best possible showing in their two outstanding events, SENIOR GIRLS hunt up ingenious ideas. With the girls these magnanimous happenings are the Freshie Frolic and "Hair Bow Day." The Frolic is really a huge party at which the seniors try to make the little freshie sisters happy by providing them with nourishment for their "funny-bones" as well as their "tummies." This year the humorous sustenance was in the form of solo singing, group singing and a truly thrilling melodrama by the Blue Mask Club. Lots of laughter filled the gym as the spectators watched the tragedians go through their paces. Then after all the emotion had simmered down, the whole assemblage convened for mess: ice cream, cookies and lollipops. The day on which the little crepe paper knots were worn also caused a lot of merriment: the club members sold the bows for a penny to anyone who would buy them, and the money that was netted was indeed quite a bit. And that is where the philanthropic spirit of Senior Girls comes in: they give this money to needy persons and places at the suggestion of authoritative persons.

Miss Rubetta W. Biggs, a jolly and spirited little English teacher, is an equally peppy and merry, as well as wise, sponsor for the club. She is just brimful of ideas and suggestions, and all her advice is free. Miss Biggs has that superb quality of making every person and every person's problems and ideas a part of her time and patience and her consideration. That is one of the reasons, and it is the greatest one, why Senior Girls prospers as it does.

Senior Girls is all in all a very pleasant group who see to it that the principle that underlies their existence: Keep a spirit of democracy so that every girl can have equal opportunities for a social life, is carried out. It merits unbelievably more credit than it gets, for it is an exponent of clear-headedness, and free viewpoints, and that should not go without reward, should it?

To help Junior girls to get along with each other and to pool their interests for a common good is the theme of JUNIOR GIRLS. This end they accomplish astonishingly well. Their meetings are mannerly, well-run affairs at which they have a good time. While these meetings are gay times of entertainment, they have behind them a more serious motive which has been inseparable from Junior Girls since it was founded. This idea is that of holding certain events in order to raise money which will be given to help just causes. Such an event is "Lollipop Day" on which occasion members sell lollipops to anyone who takes advantage of the fact that said lollipops may be eaten in class. Any third-year girl is eligible to join the club, and many do, as is indicated by the size of the membership list. Junior Girls' Club is under the wing of Miss Mary Frye, who sees to it that everybody has a good time.

They are acquiring a habit of relationships—these SOPHOMORE GIRLS, they are learning to feel conscious of promoting social welfare. For in their second year girls begin to find a greater interest in social affairs. This interest has prompted the club to sponsor a semi-annual tag day, to donate charity baskets, and to present a yearly gift to their school. With the tactful help of Mrs. Rosenberg, Sophomore Girls have found many new and common interests.

With three phrases as bywords: "Face Life Squarely" and "Find and Give the Best," GIRL RESERVES finds itself an important branch of the Y. W. C. A. Two big features of the club are Flower Day and the acquiring of Girl Reserve Sweaters. These are blue and white and may be worn after the prospective wearers have contributed a definite amount of service to the school. As their group leader, GIRL RESERVES has Mrs. Brown, a graduate of Hyde Park.

All the brain power that SENIOR BOYS can get together is concentrated upon two things: The Freshie Mixer and the Senior Boys' Play. This year the Mixer had the novelty of a basketball game and a track exhibit. As usual the oldsters gave the youngsters a very good time. The boys' soul-stirring drama of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has not failed its predecessors; in fact, it was a howl of a hit. Coach E. E. Hasan plays "Big Brother" to the boys.

The AITCHPE TRIBE, composed of the athletic lettermen of the school, enjoyed a vigorous revival this spring. A definite purpose and objective has been adopted, namely, "to serve their school by promoting the general welfare of athletics, developing and maintaining good citizenship in the student body and to be ever in readiness to be of service to the school." With such principles of endeavor the "Tribe" hopes to lead the way to new achievements.

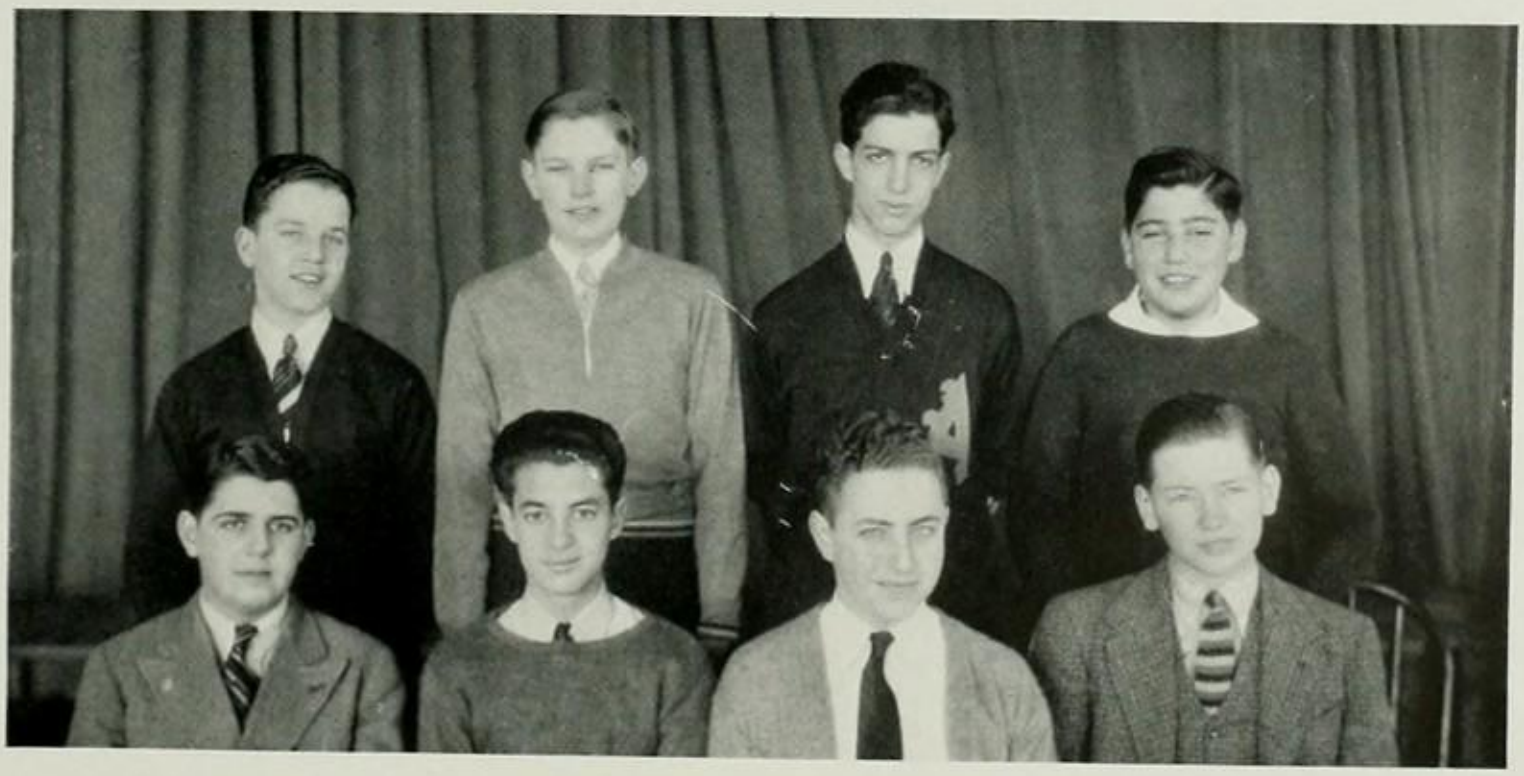
The name of the CHICAGO TOUR CLUB appears on the club list of Hyde Park for the first time in November, 1936. The idea so prospered under the guidance of Miss Ruth Stoke that the result was a popular and prominent school activity. The members take jaunts around their fair city, largely, to find out about the revealing things that are going on, but also to have a jolly time. Some of these tours have been to WGN, Chinatown, Municipal Airport, Hydrox Ice Cream Plant, to the Union Stock Yards, and the Zoo!!

BIT AND SPUR, the first "horsey" club in the Chicago Public High Schools has had—to put it tritely—a very successful season. The dashing cavalrymen meet weekly to plan whether or not they shall ride if it rains and just how many falls they shall limit themselves to if they do ride. The boys do ride well, though, and they get a lot out of their jaunts—more than just stiff backs, etc. The size of the club points knowingly to its popularity.



Second Row—Nussbaum, Bob; Netsch, Walter; Greenblatt, Sam; Gaffney, Jerry. First Row—Baer, David; Peters, Warren; Peters, Vic; Goes, Robert.

The GERMAN CLUB, auf Deutsch der Deutsche Verein, is the bright star of the German Department. To belong to it one must be a student of German; there are no other requirements than that. Der Deutche Verein is noted particularly for two things: its delightful meetings (surely they are never without variety of entertainment) and its size (it ranks second to Sigma Epsilon, which is indeed a compliment). Now about these meetings—German is, of course, spoken as much as is conveniently possibly; very unusual programs, such as the plays and dialogues given in German, debates and discussions on current topics, and sometimes, if club day is on a holiday, the origin and ceremony of the occasion is told of and celebrated. The Essen at the meetings is wunderschön. The club is indeed justified in its culinary pride: die Torte (pie), der Apfelwein (cider), Schokalade (cocoa), der Kuchen (cake), das Eiscreme (ice cream), and das belegte Butterbrot (sandwiches). And the club is also justified in its pride over its Zeitung (newspaper) Published once a semester, das deutsche Blatt (The German Leaflet) stands as a literary accomplishment of the students and teachers who put their efforts into it. It is printed entirely in German except for a limited vocabulary. In this way both the pupils who write it and those who read it learn more German and give themselves a more thorough foundation in grammar, history and idiomatic phrases.

Mrs. Hulda Witte Randall founded The German Club, and has remained an earnest and thoughtful Leiterin (adviser). Her efforts are limitless and so are her ideas, facts which make the Club greatly indebted to her. All in all, der Verein is composed of go-getting, energetic pupils who have a jolly time.

The ZOOLOGY CLUB, as well as being a social unit, is a means of obtaining further information and of hearing fine speakers on material related to animal life. It is open to any student, present or former, of zoology. There are, now and then, field trips in addition to the bi-monthly discussions. At meetings, which are under the eye of Mr. C. P. Shideler, such absorbing subjects as basal metabolism and canine traits are debated.

It is an interesting pastime for students open-eyed to the wonder of nature —this GARDEN CLUB. The meetings are the kind that broaden meager views; the kind that stimulate further interest in botany and the related fields. Lectures and visits to conservatories are aids in his development of opinion and knowledge. Then spring, and the Garden Club stride is field trips under the eye of Miss Fuchs, in contact, always, with nature.

The ASTRONOMY CLUB has made a discovery—that classrooms are not the only place to "stargaze"! For on moonlight nights they hie themselves from cozy homes to gaze at stellar activity and to return with stiffened necks. The heavenly bodies are also observed through lectures and field trips and open discussions. With Miss Grace Peebles as guiding star, the club has been most resourceful in finding interests along the Milky Way.

One of Hyde Park's newest organizations was founded for the study, application, and fostering of psychology in its every phase. So, because the PSYCHOLOGY CLUB is interestingly novel, Miss Anna L. Anderson has found that the organization is one of universal interest, which has bearing in every phase of study and is, as a consequence, a magnet to theory-minded students.

Because the Illinois state law provides that girls shall not enter into interscholastic competition, an urgent need for diversified athletics has come up in the girls' department of gymnasium. The outlet of this need is the GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION: a body of lively girls who do a lot more for Hyde Park than just chase balls and make baskets, for they are ready at the drop of a hat to do any of the thousand and one things that are required of them. They are efficient help at assemblies, they are hostesses to visiting schools, they are flower sales girls, and staunch boosters of athletics.

But there's really more to the G.A.A. service than this. There's the fine spirit that is back of the whole organization. It's the spirit of good, healthy exertion —physical and mental exertion. It's the spirit of playing fairly and the spirit of constant progression. The G.A.A. of today is a far cry from the bloomer and middy group of lasses of some years back. A real goal is the winning of letters that are awarded after a thousand points in athletic merit are received. Additional letters and chevrons are awarded to ambitious champions.

To pilot themselves on a straight course, the girls have four officers, a sport board, and a faculty adviser, Miss Frederika Marston.

In spite of its being a rather new organ of the athletic department, the GIRLS ASSOCIATION OF LETTERMEN is coming well up to its standards of service. The direction of their actions lies in their boosting of athletic competition, and in the help they give in the way of assemblies and meets. Of course, they need variety for meetings, so a trip to WGN and a scavanger hunt filled the need. Miss Frederika Marston is the club "coach."

During the past thirty years, LE CERCLE FRANCAIS has been the expression of French students' enthusiasm. The present sponsor, Miss Katherine Slaught, with her own great zeal, has stimulated lively interest in her organization throughout the French student body.

The purpose of Le Cercle is to further knowledge of France and of French literature; mainly to encourage conversation. With this purpose in mind, the students have mapped a year of most inspiring programs including the entertainment of the P.T.A. by fable, play, and song.

At one of the regular meetings last fall, Le Cercle had the great honor and pleasure of a friendly visit from its native founder, the intriguing Mlle. Favard. Surely the students were delighted with her lecture on Benjamin Franklin's adage, "Every man has two countries, his own and France." C'est bien vrai, n'est-ce pas?

With but one candle on its birthday cake, the PAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE is perhaps the most popular and important activity among students of Spanish. With Mrs. Isolina Flores as their guide and sponsor, the League has made thorough studies of the customs, literature, culture, history and geography of the Spanish-American republics. An orchid goes (or should go) to the League for its instrumental work in binding together the Spanish students of Hyde Park.

The PRE-JOURNALISM CLASS is one that has been made to prepare and make known to each other those students who wish to enter the Journalism Class and who hope to gain entrance to the Weekly staff. The class is a substitute for 3A English in place of which a thorough study of grammar and writing foundations is offered. Sponsor of the Weekly, Helen R. Gallagher, and Journalism teacher extraordinary, Josephine C. Quinlan, are the instructors for the class.

FORUM is a club that ranks among the intellectuals; it is pre-eminently an organization for civic-minded and world-situation-conscious people. It is not an ordinary club by any means; rather it is an astute unit that has as members intelligent, thinking persons. These students meet to discuss the problems and disorders that confront the world; they offer their solutions and answers, and then compare notes. The meetings are conducted as round tables and panel discussions. Best of all about Forum are the many prominent speakers. Among these are Robert Hutchins, Norman Thomas, Louis Mann, and Preston Bradley. Through these prominent speakers, both the liberal and the conservative viewpoints have been presented, thus satisfying both sides of Forum house. Mr. Walter J. Hipple, as sponsor, is largely responsible for the success and truly progressive spirit of the group.

Because there are many students who follow the select order of the Fourth Estate, and because the Weekly needs all such persons, THE JOURNALISM CLASS has been added to the school curriculum. In the class journalistic writing is explained, with newspaper function and make-up discussed as interesting diversion. Entrance to the class is highly competitive. After a semester, the student is supposed to have a knowledge of newspaper construction and greater knowledge of how to write. Then if he's good enough, he gets on the Weekly to give it the benefits of his training. And it is largely through the undying, everlasting patience and the wise and indefatigable judgment of Miss Josephine C. Quinlan and Miss Helen R. Gallagher, that those who rise in the class achieve whatever goals they do.

Third Row—Porter, Harry; Browar, Bob; Siegel, Alfred; Gallaher, Richard; Goodman, Joseph; Ryan, Bob; Seelig, Helen. Explorates Legis, the LAW CLUB, is made up of students who are concerned with the law, with its meaning and enforcement, with its bearing upon the lives of the people. It is an intriguing league in that it has such a wide range of membership; all sides, all views, and all ideas are presented, thus favoring only a fair thought-stimulating round of discussion. In a manner to vary the meetings, round tables are held and, if luck prevails, speakers are presented. Well known men, the majority lawyers, have discussed their cases, explaining to the club each step of the trial and why decisions are rendered. One speaker was most amusing with his tales of humorous cases. In such manner the possible monotony of the meeting is avoided. Quite often mock trials, complete in every detail, are held, thus giving the students an idea of court procedure and the intimate phases of law. Current events are more than often "on the pan" and with much heat and frenzy these events are argued and debated. Explorates Legis is under the guiding hand of Miss J. Casavaw, who, it is to be added, does a splendid job of advising.

NATIONAL STENOTYPE INSTITUTE

Invites You to investigate its exclusive Stenotype SECRETARIAL TRAINING for young men and women who want "preferred positions" in business—rather than mere "jobs"! Who want the better earnings, better opportunities, better futures, that thousands of Stenotypists already enjoy. Particularly you will want to see a Free Demonstration of this new, faster, simpler, touch-typed shorthand method—as taught in The Stenotype Company's own institution! This demonstration can be had any time you can come in.

. . . Wait Until

you have seen The National Stenotype Institute's headquarters, facilities and equipment for yourself.

Learn the facts about our unique training's simplicity, ease, fascination, and practical advantages—at firsthand. See what our present students are doing; how they are laying the foundation for an unusual success-career in business, in U. S. Civil Service, or in the general reporting field. We'll be glad to discuss your future ambitions, and tell you frankly whether or not we can help you realize them. There is no obligation.

The Reason Why

That MOLLOY MADE covers have been used on so many of the nation's leading annuals over a long period of time is testimony to the fact that they really do represent more value. The Aitchpe, like many other leading annuals, started using MOLLOY MADE covers "away back when"—and the MOLLOY trademark on the cover of this 1937 issue is the best evidence of an eminently satisfactory standard of quality and service throughout the years.
